The Fox & the Grapes

A Fox one day spied a beautiful bunch of ripe grapes hanging from a vine trained along the branches of a tree. The grapes seemed ready to burst with juice, and the Fox's mouth watered as he gazed longingly at them.

The bunch hung from a high branch, and the Fox had to jump for it. The first time he jumped he missed it by a long way. So he walked off a short distance and took a running leap at it, only to fall short once more. Again and again he tried, but in vain.

Now he sat down and looked at the grapes in disgust.

"What a fool I am," he said. "Here I am wearing myself out to get a bunch of sour grapes that are not worth gaping for."

And off he walked very, very scornfully.

There are many who pretend to despise and belittle that which is beyond their reach.

Un zorro un día vio un hermoso racimo de maduros
Uvas que cuelgan de una vid entrenada a lo

Ráfaga de jugo, y la boca del zorro se
Los contemplaba con ansia.

El racimo colgaba de una rama alta, y el
Fox tuvo que saltar por ella. La primera vez que saltó
Él lo perdió a lo largo del camino. Así que se fue de un
Corta distancia y dio un salto de carrera en ella, sólo
Para quedarse corto una vez más. Una y otra vez intentó, pero en vano

Ahora se sentó y miró las uvas asco,

“Qué herramienta soy”, dijo. “Aquí estoy
Poniéndome a mi lado para obtener un montón de uvas agrias
Que no vale la pena boquiabierto foro”

Y él caminó muy, y y scorntully.

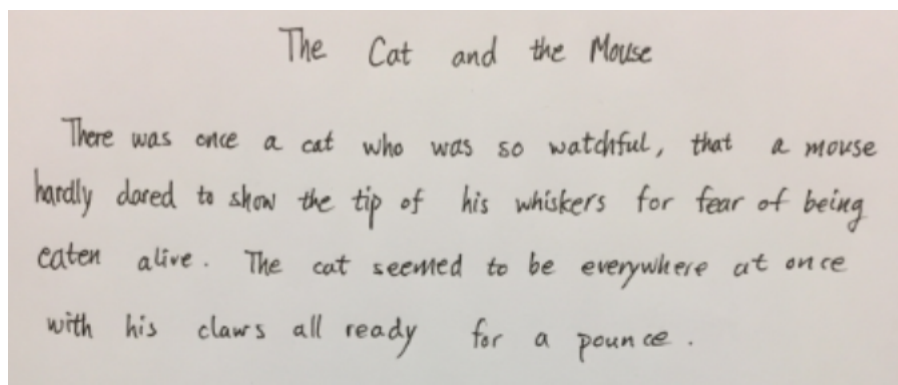

Hay muchos que pretenden despreciar y menospreciar eso Que está fuera de su alcance.

The Cat and the Mouse

There was once a cat who was so watchful, that a mouse hardly dared to show the tip of his whiskers for fear of being eaten alive. The cat seemed to be everywhere at once with his claws all ready for a pounce.
